

CASE STUDY

COMPLEX LITIGATION: BANKRUPTCY

“Esquire’s support during both the deposition and trial phase of the case was outstanding. No matter where in the country the depositions were occurring we had an excellent case management team to handle all of the details for us. The fast and accurate turnaround on transcripts was a real asset to our team.” – Litigation Partner, Chicago, IL, Am Law 100 Law Firm

Case Summary

Bankruptcy lawsuit seeking $25 Billion to clean up toxins and compensate tort claimants.

Esquire provided support on the case for over two years with a total of 112 depositions plus four months of trial.

Key Deposition Management Challenge:

This case required highly-specialized court reporters across the country and extremely fast turnaround time for the transcripts.

WHY ESQUIRE?

- Continuity in regards to highly qualified court reporters, regardless where the case went. Plus Esquire provided the same highly-qualified realtime court reporter during the 4 month trial.
- Seamless Case Management: one phone number, dedicated team, extremely fast turnaround for questions/issues/concerns.
- Paperless deliveries via EsquireShare deposition repository drastically reduced transcript turnaround time and enabled the trial team to meet key deadlines.
